Commission Decisions Impact Everyone

- Arizona's Economic Development
- Residential Utility Consumers, the Elderly, and Low Income Families
- Large and Small Businesses
- Schools, Governments and Nonprofit Organizations
- Utility Companies

Why You Should Be There

This year you will vote for two of the five Commissioners. This powerful government agency, often described as the Fourth Branch of Government:

- Regulates utilities impacting rates, availability, and quality of telecommunications, water, electric and natural gas services
- Protects buyers and sellers of stocks, bonds and other securities from investment scams and fraud
- Insures railroad safety and monitors the pipelines that move gas and oil across the state
- Monitors the integrity of Arizona businesses and organizations

Be There Live Or Online

Attend live at the Arizona Broadcast Center in Phoenix or view the Web Cast online during and after the debate, anywhere you have access to the Web.
